St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church was located about a mile north of the present village of Bremen. It was organized circa 1845 by German Immigrants from the former Kingdom of Hannover, Germany. It is said that there were three different Pastors who served the church in the early years, but the early records were lost. Rev. Charles Tegtmeier, Pastor of St. John Lutheran Church of Bremen (organized 1847) served St. Peter's during 1856-1857. It is recorded, in 1862 when Rev. Johan Heinrich Doermann came to serve St. Peter's (1862-1873), he also served St Paul's, Wine Hill, IL. (organized 1859) from 1863-1873. It is said that in 1862 when Rev. Doermann came, that the church was "re-organized" and the existing records date from that time.

Shortly after organization, the congregation built their first church, a small log building. In 1856 they built another log house to be used as a parsonage and school house. School was conducted in this building until another was built in 1862. As the congregation grew, they made improvements to the church property. In 1863 a brick church was built at the cost of $2,500.00. Improvements to the parsonage were made in 1875 at a cost of $300.00. It is also interesting to note that in 1883 the congregation valued their property at $4,000.00.

After organization, the congregation was without a pastor for a while, yet they assembled for services ever Sunday. A Mr. Duensing, a German School teacher, taught school and read a sermon for services.

As said before, Rev. J.H. Doermann served from 1862-1873. He was replaced by Rev. F.W. Pennykamp who served faithfully until October, 1878. Rev. G.J. Mueller was called to serve in January, 1879. It appears that he left around the end of 1882 and went to serve at St. John in Chester. After Pastor Mueller left, the congregation was served by Pastors of St. John of Chester, St. Paul of Wine Hill and St. John of Sparta for a period of time. Pastors who helped out were: Rev. E.G. Franck, early 1883, Rev. August H. Mayer, 1883-1894, Rev. Heinemann, 1895-1906: Rev. H.R. Richter, some in 1903-1907: Rev. G. Erdmann 1908-1916: Rev. J.H. Deye, 1920-1925: Rev. Christian Meyer, 1925-1930: Rev. A.H. Wessel, 1931. There were no baptisms, confirmations, marriages or funerals recorded in 1929.

The membership grew to 52 family units (heads of Households-taken from the Financial Record Book), by 1856, but by about 1860 the membership had dropped to about 20 households, members going to different churches. The congregation gradually increased after 1862 when Rev. Doermann came to serve the Church and had increased to about 36 households by 1877. In later years, especially after the congregation no longer had a full time pastor, the numbers decreased again until by 1932 there were only about 13 family units still there. At that time they decided to dissolve the congregation and sell their property. It was sold to John Wilson for $1,000.00 and the proceeds divided among the thirteen remaining family units after the expense of the deed and abstract were paid. The school benches were divided among the thirteen family units, also.

Some of the families transferred to St. John Lutheran Church of Bremen and some to St. John Lutheran Church of Chester, some to St. Paul, Wine Hill. The last year that money given to the church was recorded in the Finance Book was 1925-1926. Apparently members were "assessed" "dues", as opposed to free-will offering and when one member wanted to transfer to St. John, Chester, he was obligated to pay at least half of his remaining unpaid dues before he left or he would forfeit his membership.

The cemetery still exists and can be found a short distance off the Bremen-Sparta road, the older cemetery #1 is farther from the road, back in some trees, the newer cemetery #2 is nearer the road in a field. There is a Board of Trustees, three men, descending from original members of the church, who are responsible for the care of the newer cemetery, financed by a perpetual trust fund.

The congregation was a member of the Lutheran Church of Missouri, Ohio and other states (now the Lutheran-Church Missouri Synod). The original congregational records are the property of the same, and are held in the District Headquarters at 2408 Lebanon, Belleville, Illinois.

When St. John Lutheran Church, Chester, Illinois was organized in the Spring of 1849, several of the early members left St. Peter's and were among the Charter members of St. John in their organization.
